Our own John Reynolds, in his capacity as Saline County Commissioner, gave us an update on the commissions activities. They reworked the fireworks resolution to bring into compliance with the state. Sales will be permitted from 8:00 AM till 10.00 PM . They approved the Mitigation Plan. This plan is in place to assist Emergency Preparedness in their funding of damage repair in case of tornado or other disaster. He also told us about the "prime and double seal" which will be used to build some county roads. This is a process which costs about $75,00.00 a mile as opposed to asphalt pavement which can cost 1.2 million dollars per mile. Good information.
